What happens if I am unable to pay premiums?

While we recommend that all your premiums be paid on the respective due dates, we also understand that sudden changes in lifestyle like increased responsibilities or unexpected increase in household expenses may affect your future ability to pay premiums. You have following flexibilities in order to ensure that your benefits under the Policy continue in full.

Grace Period

Grace Period is the period given to you from your premium due date, to pay the premium without any impact on the benefits of the Policy. Grace Period for all modes is 30 days. In case of the death of the Life Insured during the Grace Period of 30 days allowed for payment of due premium, the Death Benefit less the unpaid due premium shall be payable and the Policy will be terminated.

Revival/Reinstatement:

The effective date of reinstatement is the date on which the below conditions are satisfied and the risk is accepted by the Company. The reinstatement of the Policy may be on terms different from those applicable to the Policy before it lapsed. The reinstatement will take effect only on it being specifically communicated by the Company.

A Policy which has lapsed may be reinstated for full benefits subject to the following conditions;

- a) The application for reinstatement is made within two (2) years from the date of first unpaid premium
- b) Satisfactory evidence of insurability of the Life Insured is produced,
- c) Payment of an amount equal to all unpaid premiums together with interest at such rate as the Company may charge for such Reinstatement, as decided by the Company from time to time.
- d) Terms and conditions as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

In case of death of the Life Insured during the reinstatement period, No benefit is payable to the nominee. If the Policy which has lapsed is not reinstated within the period allowed for reinstatement, the Policy shall be terminated on the completion of the period allowed for reinstatement and no benefits shall be payable.

Can I surrender my Policy?

We would want you to pay premiums regularly till the end of the Policy Term. However, in case you are not able to pay all premiums and want to surrender the Policy, the Policy will be terminated. No surrender value is payable to you under this product.
